Paroles de la chanson du groupe Rise Against:
Hold on slow down lets hear from the top now and tell me everything
I know I’ve been gone for what seems like forever
But I’m here now waiting
To convince you that I’m not a ghost or a stranger
But closer than you think
She said just go on she wants you
And same does your life by
Please don’t die on me

Wings won’t take me
Eyes closed face me
So take a step
But don’t look down
Take a step
Now I’m standing on a rooftop ready to fall
I’m think I’m at the edge now but I could be wrong
I’m standing on a rooftop ready to fall
Perpetual motion the image won’t focus
A blur is all that’s in
But here in this moment like the eye of the storm
It all came clear to me
I found a shelter to lean on
An infallible reason to live all by itself

I took one last look from the heights that I once loved
And then I ran like hell
Wings won’t take me
Eyes closed face me
So take a step
But don’t look down
Take a step
Now I’m standing on a rooftop ready to fall
I’m think I’m at the edge now but I could be wrong
I’m standing on a rooftop ready to fall
I count the times that I’ve been sorry
I know, I know
Now my conventions slowly drowns
I know, I know
If there’s a time these walls could guard you
I know, I know
Then let that time be right now
Now I’m standing on a rooftop
Now I’m standing on a rooftop ready to fall
I’m standing on a rooftop ready to fall
I’m think I’m at the edge now but I could be wrong
I’m standing on a rooftop ready to fall
And I’m standing on a rooftop (ready to fall)
And I’m standing on a rooftop (ready to fall)
And I’m standing on a rooftop (ready to fall)
And I’m standing on a rooftop ready to fall
