“Mohamed, tué par l’armée grecque” : La Grèce “nie catégoriquement” et accuse la Turquie de “créer des Fake News” (MàJ)

04/03/2020 à 12h37

04/03/2020

Le porte-parole du gouvernement grec : “La Turquie crée et diffuse des Fake News contre la Grèce. Aujourd’hui, ils ont créé un autre mensonge de ce type, avec des migrants blessés et un mort soi-disant tué par les forces grecques. Je le nie catégoriquement.”

> Greek Government Spokesperson @SteliosPetsas: The Turkish side creates and disperses fake news targeted against Greece. Today they created yet another such falsehood, with injured migrants and one dead supposedly by Greek fire. I categorically deny it. pic.twitter.com/ApHxJGTPEr
>
> — Ελληνική Κυβέρνηση (@govgr) March 4, 2020

> Migrants : les derniers instants de Mohamed, tué par l'armée grecque #International https://t.co/m3RxXGcibA
>
> — Le Parisien (@le_Parisien) March 4, 2020

> 3/ Autopsy on body of Mohammad Arab, the man who earlier this week was shot by Greek police on border near to Turkey, was already performed in Turkey.
>
> Also witnesses to his death were interrogated.
>
> Turkey intents to sue Greece over death of Mohammad Arab, sources say.@akhbar
>
> — Jenan Moussa (@jenanmoussa) March 4, 2020

02/03/2020

> This is the first reported death among migrants trying to cross from Turkey to Greece.
>
> One syrian man was shot dead by Greek border guards. Here is the video.@akhbar pic.twitter.com/LIM5L8d03h
>
> — Jenan Moussa (@jenanmoussa) March 2, 2020

Un acte « inhumain ». Un haut responsable turc a accusé lundi les autorités grecques d'avoir tué un migrant qui tentait de franchir la frontière entre les deux pays, dénonçant un acte « inhumain » qu'Athènes a démenti.

> Video showing fatality on Greek-Turkish border is fake news. We call upon everyone to use caution when reporting news that furthers Turkish propaganda. #fakenews #fakeTurkishPropaganda
>
> — Stelios Petsas (@SteliosPetsas) March 2, 2020

> Mohammad alArab fled Aleppo 5 yrs ago during Syria war. In Istanbul he worked in a shoe factory.
>
> Acc to his family, he was economically not doing well in Turkey. He wanted to move to Europe to make a new start.
>
> He left Istanbul for border last night, was shot this morning.
>
> — Jenan Moussa (@jenanmoussa) March 2, 2020

(…) Le Parisien